

THE ISSUE

The Digital Journey Ahead for Construction Industry

MagiCAD EQUA.

Driving sustainability in building services design

Glodon Company Limited, a digital building platform service provider, announced today that its subsidiary MagiCAD Group Oy has completed the acquisition of a majority stake in EQUA Simulation AB, the developer of the world's leading building performance simulation software IDA Indoor Climate and Energy (IDA ICE). The companies will join forces to drive sustainability in building services design in the future.

Read Article

Glodon International Development 2022

MAR Glodon and RICS jointly published Digital Twins White Paper	APR Glodon released first ESG Report	JUN Glodon held 2022 Investor Conference
MAR Glodon advanced cooperation with Xi'an Jiaotong-Liverpool University	JUN MagiCAD Group released MagiCAD 2022	AUG Glodon published g insight industry magazine
DEC Glodon completed and put into use Xi'an R&D Building	OCT Glodon became a nima patron and a member of its technology group	AUG Gsite nominated for Construction Software of the Year
		AUG Glodon solution awarded as Global Service Best Practice at Int'l Trade Fair

Glodon Committed to Customers and Digitalisation of Construction Industry amid Challenges and Uncertainties in 2022

As a leading digital building service provider, Glodon's vision is to use technology to create a better living and working environment. In 2022, the company continued its international journey amid challenges and made significant progress with customers and partners in international development, contributing to upgrading the construction industry.

Read Article

Join Glodon at Digital Built World Summit for Best Practices of Digital Twins

Glodon is proud to support the 2nd annual Digital Built World Summit, taking place 22-23 February 2023 in Sydney and virtually. Join Glodon Vice President Pierpaolo Franco and International Research and Intelligence Director Sebastian Tang with over 300 global executives in the AEC industry at the premier event dedicated to leveraging digital technology to design, build and operate smart, responsive and sustainable assets.

Register Now

How can Construction Industry Cope with Challenges, Technology Adoption And Sustainability

The construction industry is shaped by the megatrends of digital transformation, urbanisation, as well as markets and geopolitics. The transition to a sustainable built environment also presents significant opportunities, challenges, and legal risks for players in the sector. In this article, industry leaders share their perceptions of 2022 and expectation for 2023.

Read Article